BARRE, VT., FRIDAY JANUARY 27, 1905.

PRICE, ONE CENT.

SITUATION IN RUSSIA

Comparatively Quiet in St. Petersburg.

RIOTING IN MOSCOW.

Employees of Nineteen Factories in Later City Quit Work Today--Strike Is Still Extending to Other Cities.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 27.--The number of workmen who have returned to work was increased this morning. It was learned this morning that nearly half of those who were wounded in Sunday's massacre have since died at hospitals. The total number of dead exceeds seven hundred. It appears that the bullets used by the troops had old cases which exploded in the bodies of the victims, precluding the possibility of recovery from the wounds.

SEVERE FIGHTING IN POLAND.

Rumors of Big Fatalities in Two Clashes Between Soldiers and Workmen.

Berlin, Jan. 27.--Unconfirmed telegrams from the Russian frontier state that severe fighting has occurred between the workmen and troops at Radom, Poland. Two battles were fought. In the first six officers, 38 soldiers, and over a hundred workmen were reported killed and many persons wounded. In the second fifty workmen were killed and many on both sides were wounded.

DEMONSTRATION AT MILAN.

Crowd of 5,000 People Assembled and Were Finally Dispersed.

Milan, Jan. 27.--A demonstration against the government of the Czar occurred here last evening. A crowd of 5,000 gathered and were addressed by several deputies. After the meeting the crowd started to march en masse to the Russian consulate, but before reaching it, was dispersed by the police. A similar demonstration will occur at Rome, Sunday.

MORE MENACING AT MOSCOW.

Employees of Nineteen More Factories Make Demands.

Moscow, Jan. 27.--The strike situation here has taken on a more menacing aspect today. This morning the employees of nineteen more factories went out, the men demanding a ten hour day from Monday to Friday, five hours Saturday, a holiday Sunday, twenty per cent increase in wages and other concessions.

Striking at Binner Today.

Liban, Jan. 27.--The strike has spread to Binner workmen today.

NEARLY THIRTY INJURED.

Disastrous Train Wreck Near East Freehold, N. J.

Freehold, N. J., Jan. 27.--Nearly thirty persons were injured, one possibly fatally, when a train that was sent out to open the snow-bound Matteawan and Freehold division of the Central railroad of New Jersey, was wrecked yesterday at East Freehold, two miles from here.

The accident happened in a deep cut through Briar hill. The train was made up of two heavy engines, a passenger car and a coal car. The front engine, in backing a ten-foot drift in the cut, left the track, and pushed by the second engine, was thrown far up on to the snow in a field. The cars were thrown from the track and the passenger car turned over. Most of the thirty passengers were cut by glass, and many received severe bruises.

Peter Dryson, engineer of the first engine, had both legs severed, and it is believed will die. His fireman, Michael Dolan, was badly crushed, and Dr. O. C. Bogardus, sheriff of Monmouth county, had his left hand broken and was cut about the head.

FOUR MEN KILLED.

Train Ran Into Snow Drift and Went Over Embankment.

Doylstown, Pa., Jan. 27.--Four men were instantly killed by accident yesterday at Durham furnace, Pa. The dead are, Edward Cowdick, aged 35; Oscar Stein, 25 years of age; Harry Dillon, 32 years of age; Jonas Liehlter, 35 years of age.

The men were employed at the Durham iron works. They were operating a cinder train, which ran into a snow drift, jumped the track and went over an embankment fifty feet high, into the Delaware river.

Kaiser's Son Is Worse.

Berlin, Jan. 27.--Prince Eitel Frederick, the Kaiser's second oldest son, who is ill at Potsdam with inflammation of the lungs, is worse today.

HOLDING HIS OWN.

Victim of Footpads at Windsor Tells of the Assault on Him.

Claremont, Jan. 27.--William Corbin, who was murderously assaulted, shot and robbed, on the Windsor road Tuesday evening, is holding his own under the care of the Windsor physicians. He has asked that an operation might be performed that the bullet might be located and says that he will die if it is not done. He has written him that the letter would be his last. He still clings to his first story, although some here think it possible he got into a row in some of his friends' homes in Windsor, or that he shot himself.

Corbin is positive as to where the assault was committed and stated that both the railroad and the Connecticut river were on his right and was also positive that he crossed the covered bridge, meaning the toll bridge, and upon his return after the assault he met a man in a team and a pedestrian, who took Corbin to be intoxicated. The fact that Deputy Sheriff Boyd found no signs of a struggle is explained by the fact that none took place, as Corbin did not put up any fight, telling the men to take all he had but not to kill him. Corbin stated that the larger man, who held the revolver, said: "You have no business with a pistol at all," and it was he who placed the pistol close to his open shirt and fired. "I will give you one good one."

County Solicitor Brown telephoned Attorney General Eastman, last evening, what he had done and Mr. Eastman was satisfied with his movements. There is nothing that can be done at present for there is no clew to be worked upon. The golden opportunity to catch the men has gone and they have now a clear road ahead of them. Such a deliberate highway robbery and attempt at murder has never before occurred within this county's borders and the citizens are somewhat worked up over it. County Solicitor Brown has ordered a post-mortem examination made in case the victim dies.

ON "RACE SUICIDE."

President Roosevelt Discourses on Familiar Theme.

Washington, Jan. 27.--The Right Rev. William C. Doane, Protestant Episcopal Bishop of Albany, and a committee of the inter-church conference on marriage and divorce, called on the President yesterday to confer with him as to some of the results of their deliberations.

Bishop Doane, speaking for the committee, delivered a brief address to President Roosevelt, to which the President replied in part as follows: "Questions like the tariff and the currency are of literally no consequence whatsoever, compared with the vital question of having the unit of our social life, the home, preserved. It is impossible to overstate the importance of the cause you represent. If the average husband and wife fulfill their duties toward one another and toward their children as Christianity teaches them, then we may rest absolutely assured that the other problems will solve themselves."

"One of the most unpleasant and dangerous features of our American life is the diminishing birth rate and the loosening of the marital ties among the other American families. It goes without saying that, for the race as for the individual, no material prosperity, no business growth, no artistic or scientific development will count, if the race commits suicide. Therefore, Bishop, I count myself fortunate in having the chance to work with you in this matter of vital importance to the national welfare."

NORWICH BEATEN.

Outclassed by University of Vermont Basket Ball Men.

Burlington, Jan. 27.--The Vermont boys defeated the Norwich basket ball team last evening at the gymnasium by the score of 25 to 8, in a game full of fast, smooth playing. Vermont outplayed her opponent in all points of the game, in shooting, passing and blocking and kept the ball around the Norwich basket most of the time. Peck took the prize for baskets, throwing twenty difficult ones. Norwich played well in her passing, but her shooting was weak, making but two baskets in the entire game. The line up and summary:

VERMONT: Black, r. f.; Potter, Barney Barlow, l. f.; Peck, C. O. Colombe, c.; Watson Hanna, r. g.; Smith Thomas, l. g.; Peck 2, Barlow 4, Peck 4, Hanna 2, Smith, Moore; fouls, Hanna 3, Barlow, Black, Thomas, Peck, Smith 4, Colombe; points on fouls, Norwich 4, Vermont 1; umpire, Bampton; referee, Appleton.

IDENTIFIED BY DIARY.

Rutland Man Found Guilty of Stealing Hens.

Rutland, Jan. 27.--C. O. Sumner, better known as "Doc," was convicted in city court yesterday of grand larceny and fined $50 and cost. The offense with which Sumner was charged was that of stealing twelve chickens from T. P. Haskins on the night of January 7.

A diary belonging to the respondent which contained many bills and other papers on which was the respondent's name, was found in the rifle den house on the morning after the theft. Sumner claimed that his pocketbook, which contained the diary and $7 in money, had been stolen from him two days prior to the chicken theft, and that the diary had been left in the den house to throw suspicion on him, but he failed to prove this to the satisfaction of the court. Sumner took an appeal and furnished bail in $200.

A BATTLE IN PROGRESS

Kurpatkin's Offensive Movement is Started.

HEAVY LOSSES REPORTED IN BEAN MURDER CASE

It Is Said That Kurpatkin Was Ordered Ahead to Distract Attention from Russia's Internal Troubles.

Berlin, Jan. 27.--A Mukden despatch says that General Kurpatkin's advance has assumed the proportions of a general engagement. There are heavy losses on both sides. The battle is being hotly fought in the center.

HEAVY FIRING HEARD.

Kuroki's Headquarters Report an Engagement in Progress.

General Kuroki's Headquarters, Jan. 27.--A heavy and continuous roar has been heard to the westward all day yesterday. Apparently the largest engagement since October is being fought. Reports received here are to the effect that a Russian force has crossed the Hun river on the Japanese left wing. A Japanese force advanced against the Russians, making an attack.

The fighting must be attended with great suffering from the cold. A snow storm began on Monday, following a long period of remarkable mildness. The temperature is below zero and the plains are covered with several inches of snow. The ground is too hard for rapid trenching.

Yesterday's move by the Russians is the first important one since General Mischenko's recent raid.

A FIFTH ARMY.

Japanese Organizing Another Fighting Force -- Fleet Movements.

London, Jan. 27.--The Tokio correspondent of the Telegraph says: "The fifth army is being organized under command of Lieutenant General Kawamura, who is calling out more reservists. Conscripts are expected. All men under 40 years of age are being drilled."

"The blockading of Vladivostok is imminent. A fleet of cruisers is leaving for the south and Admirals Togo and Kamimura will follow with battleships. Three cruisers and several torpedo boat destroyers are in the neighborhood of Borneo. A division of troops has been landed in Formosa."

"It is now evident that the cruiser Takasago was lost. The names of her crew, from the commander down, are officially published as killed."

KUROPATKIN HAMPERED.

Troops From the European Provinces Will Not Advance.

London, Jan. 27.--The Daily Telegraph's St. Petersburg correspondent asserts that General Kurpatkin has telegraphed to the Emperor that his offensive power is seriously hampered by the obstinate reluctance of his troops from the European provinces to advance against the enemy.

Whilst the Cossacks and Siberians are full of dash, the Europeans argue that now that Port Arthur has surrendered there is no object in continuing the war.

TO CREATE DIVERSION.

Gen. Kuropatkin Has Been Ordered to Make Offensive Movement.

London, Jan. 27.--It is reliably stated in diplomatic circles today that General Kuropatkin's offensive movement is due to orders from St. Petersburg to take this step in order to create a diversion and draw attention from internal affairs.

LIBERALS WON OUT.

Agricultural Workers in England Probably Opposed to Protection.

London, Jan. 25.--The election at North Dorset for a member of parliament resulted in a victory for the liberals. Mr. Wells receiving 909 more votes than his conservative opponent. The results emphasize the fact that the agricultural workers are opposed to the protection idea.

GOVERNMENT LOSSES.

GRUESOME EXHIBITS

Crushed Skull of Murdered Man Shown in Court

HEAVY LOSSES REPORTED IN BEAN MURDER CASE

Joseph Bean, Convicted of Killing Ephraim Root and Sentenced to Life, Has Case Taken to Supreme Court on Exceptions.

Montpelier, Jan. 27.--There were some gruesome exhibits in supreme court today when the case of state versus Joseph Bean was brought up on exceptions from the Windsor county court. Bean was convicted of murder in the second degree in killing Ephraim Root of Rochester and sentenced to the state prison for life. The exceptions relate to the admission and rejection of evidence. During the trial Elmer Martel testified that Bean had tried to hire him to kill Root but the job was never done by him. The defense claims that the evidence was unsupported.

The crushed skull of the murdered man and the club with which the murder was committed were submitted for exhibits today as were also drawings and charts. W. B. C. Stickney began his arguments for the respondent this forenoon and had not finished at three o'clock this afternoon. The hearing is likely to last several days.

Root was murdered on the night of October 12, 1903. He was found out doors near the entrance of his horse barn, with his head crushed in. He did not regain consciousness and died the same day. Jealousy was claimed as the cause of the murder.

The Washington county cases of Irina Masuoco vs. Dominica Tomasi, breach of promise, and D. Tomasi vs. Masuoco, were continued to Thursday.

Caledonia county cases were argued yesterday.

In the case of Charles E. Coruth vs. Frank Jones, a trespass suit in which the defendant recovered $400 and costs in county court, Smith and Smith appeared for the plaintiff and Alexander Dunnett for the defendant.

The cases of state vs. W. R. Aldrich, for alleged gambling, and State vs. Alonzo Garriek for keeping an alleged gambling place, were argued by Porter & Thompson for the state, and Dunnett & Howe for the respondent.

The cases involve liability to punishment in connection with a poker game in a hotel. Garriek is said to have rented a room to Aldrich in which poker was played, and comes up on a demurrer to the indictment.

The Essex county case of Town of Brighton vs. N. E. Kelsey, a suit under the penal statute, against the president of the Brighton Acquetted Co. for alleged failure to file with the town clerk for purposes of taxation, a list of stockholders and shares, was argued by Howe & Ames for the plaintiff and Young & Young for the defendant.

OVERSEER'S ACTION IN GERMAIN CASE

Will Pay Expenses of Sending Sick Man and Family to California and Will Present Bill to the City Council.

Overseer of the Poor Charles A. Smith will send P. J. Germaine, who is now a city charge and who is fighting tuberculosis, to California. That statement was made by him today. When he gets the expenses of the trip figured up he will present the bill to the city council for payment. Mr. Germaine and family, who are at present living in Williams-town, wish to leave for the West about the middle of next month, stopping at Montreal to visit some relatives. The estimated cost is $200. Tickets, etc., will be purchased by the overseer. This is the first time that an experiment of this kind has been tried in this city, and it is naturally causing considerable comment. The overseer says that the only argument that he has heard against the idea is that the city might be relieved of the charge before the expense amounted up to the sum which would be required to send the man and his family to California.

"But," said Mr. Smith, "we are not going on that principle. We do not feel that we could be influenced by any such argument. We are going on a basis of humanity in this as well as on one of economy. I was convinced some time ago that it would be the best plan and that the man ought to be sent to California. I am supported in this by the man's physician, by the city physician, by other medical men, and by several citizens who have spoken to me. We are going to do this not because we want to get rid of the charge, but because it will be for the man's good. He will go to friends in California who will care for him until such time as he is able to work again, when they will help him to secure employment. Doctors say that he has good prospects of practical recovery. He is now somewhat better, through his self-treatment. He is carrying out some of the ideas he learned while in a sanitarium in Massachusetts, practically living out of doors."

CLOVER CLUB ENTERTAINED.

The Rev. and Mrs. A. M. Bradley Opened Their Home to Members Yesterday.

The Clover Club, of which Mrs. A. M. Bradley is a member, were guests at the Universalist parsonage yesterday afternoon. The early part of the afternoon was devoted to a lecture by Mr. Bradley on Japan, of which the club is making a study this year. The lecture was unique in many ways and brought various subjects to mind which are not usually dwelt upon in such talks, and Mr. Bradley had the close attention of his hearers throughout the discourse. The ladies were then shown collections of pictures and curios, after which they were invited to the dining room, where a dainty spread awaited them. Many specimens of Japanese china and silver were used in the service.

An informal chat followed the refreshments and the club, through its secretary, extended its thanks to Mr. Bradley and presented a souvenir in the form of a coffee spoon, with clover decorated handle, to Mrs. Bradley, in appreciation of the assistance she has given the club in its study of Japanese life. The afternoon was one of the most enjoyable occasions in the history of the club.

BASKET BALL AT GODDARD

School Team Defeated By Barre Y. M. C. Players

AN INTERESTING CONTEST

Score Was 18 to 4--Goddard Second Defeated Eagles of Montpelier--Norwich Beaten by University of Vermont.

The Young Men's Club basket ball team of this city proved too much for Goddard's team last evening, in their game at the Goddard gymnasium, defeating the school boys by the score of 18 to 4. There was an interested crowd of rooters, both from the school and from the city. The Y. M. C. boys had the advantage in size and experience, but the seminary lads put up a plucky game, especially Butler and Clark. Smith threw some remarkable baskets for the winners, he having five baskets from the field and four from the foul line, to his credit.

Between the halves the Eagles of Montpelier and the Goddard second team convulsed the audience with laughter at their exhibition of basket ball. The Montpelier boys were so small that they dodged in and out among the Goddard players with such ease that it looked for a time as if they might win, but the superior height of the seminary boys allowed them to get more baskets, and they had 27 points to their credit, while the Eagles had but seven at the end of the game. The team work of the Eagles, however, was a great deal better than that of their opponents.

The line up of the big game:

GODDARD: Y. M. C. Fraser, c.; Rust Pike, r. f.; Sumners, l. f.; Summers Briggs, r. g.; Butler, l. g.; Sheriffs. Summary of the game: Baskets from the field, Smith 5, Summers 2; baskets from foul line, Smith 4, Fraser 4; referees, Carlie; umpire, Knapp; time, 20 and 15 minute periods.

And Trenoweth did well, too. He rolled one string of 255, another of 202, and a third of 180, making a total of 637. Both the alley records for the single and the total for this season were broken.
